Argrave shrugged. “You saw the way those three were. Almost frenzied, unreasonable, and still dangerous despite all of that.”

Argrave tapped his finger against his leg, thinking. “But with the Menagerie, there’s ...

Then there burst forth a frantic whinny from Ammi’s horse outside, followed at once by a clatter which told of a frenzied runaway. In another moment horse and buggy had gone beyond earshot, leaving the frightened man on the dark stairs to guess what had sent them. But that was not all. There had been another sound out there.
